

Powerful Preaching: the work of God's Spirit

1 Corinthians 1 and 2

General Session 2—Mark Brock

God has established his plan for transforming men and women into believers who please him. The preaching of the gospel message is designed to display God's glory and to strip men of pride. As preachers we deliver the message so that God's power is displayed through the unlikely work of sinners proclaiming a message of salvation through a murdered messiah.